icutenant, Frank Wourich; second lieutenant, S. Company E-Captain, H. K. Myers; first lieuten-S. Hoppes. ast, J. B. McCoy; second Heutenant, O. B. Reigel. Company F-Captain, Samuel R. Russell; first lieutenant, Alfred J. Derr; second lieutenant,

Charles F. Schnerr. Company G-Captain, Richard Rahn; first lieutenant, John F. Sterner; second lieutenant, George

Company H-Capinin, George W. Johnson; first licutenant, licujamin G. Hess; second licutenant, Frank Temple. Company I-Captain, P. H. Dolan; first licutenant, James Bowes ; second lieutenant, John Fell. The uniform is the undress of the regular army, and, including band, the regiment musters about 40 men. The regiment was organized during the provalence of the strikes in the anthracite coal region, and was instrumental in maintaining law and order. Having been the first regiment to arrive at Harrisburg dur the great railroad riots of 1877, it was stationed at the State arsenal for sbout two weeks, when it was relieved and dispatched to Pittsburg and there did duty till the danger had passed. The Seventh Regiment has the right of the line of the third brigade of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. All of the field, several of the staff, and many of the line officers served during the rebellion, as did many of the rank and file.

Second Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, was organized in August, 1874. Its officers are: Colonel, J. P. S. Gobin, formerly colonel of Fortyaccenth Pennsylvania Volunteers and brevet brigadier-general; lieutenant-colonel, Tom A. Relly, formerly of United States army; major, W. K. Russell, of adjutant-general's office; surgeon, W. H. Egle, formerly surgeon of United States volunteers; adjutant, M. A. Gherst, formerly of Fourfeenth Pennsylvania Cavalry; quartermaster, J. II. Stidfold; paymaster, John W. Wish; .commissary, E. R. Light, formerly captain of One hundred and seventy-third Pennsylvania Volunteers; assistant surgeons, A. W. Shultz and S. E. Brehm; chaplain, Professor D. Eberly. The uniform is that of the United States army. The regiment. from Harrisburg, Carlisle, Chambersburg, York, Wrightsville, Girardville, Tamaqua, and Pinegrove, representing the interior of the State. The rank and file are composed of the best element in the cars.

THE ELEVENTH REGIMENT, comprising the uniformed militia of Chester, Dela-

ware, and Lancaster Counties, and numbering six companies, of about fifty men each, will arrive early this morning. The regiment was organized first trains were sent eastward to a point forty miles out, where the Philadelphia troops were stafloned. The officers are: Field and staff-Col-Gallagher; major, P. M. Washabaugh: adjutant, William Baker; quartermaster, George R. Hoopes; commissary, W. W. Thomson, editor Daily News, West Chester, Pa.; surgeon, William O. Stephens, The companies are officered as follows: Company C, Coatsville, Pa.-Captain, L. J. Speak-

Company E, West Chester, Pa.-Captain, James F. McFarlan. Company F, Oxford, Pa.-Captain, T. D. Alexander.

Company G, Media, Pa.-Captain, Jesse M. Baker. Company II, Columbia, Pn.-Captain, D. B. Case. Company I, West Chester, Pa.-Captain, B. D. Evans, editor of West Chester Village Record, Pa. Two additional companies are organizing, but are not ready for parade yet.

THE TWELFTH REGIMENT still command it : Colonel, A. H. Stead ; lieutenantcolonel, David R. Foresman; major, Alonzo B. Horton; adjutant, Thomas W. Lloyd; paymaster, few during its long career-consisting of Clement John M. Maris, jr; commissary, Charles H. Kiglet; C. Biddle in 1813, Hartman Kuhn in 1814, John C. quartermaster, William R. Kramer; surgeon. Daniel Bacon; assistant surgeons, James O. Bul- James Page until 1871. During the latter's reign of lock. Charles M. Martin. The captains of the line | fifty years the corps was one of the most prosperous are as follows: Company A, Renovo, Pa., Benj. | efficient and useful in the State, and was known as F. Rumberger; Company B, Williamsport, Pa., well abroad as at home, having visited Reading. Hugh S. White; Company C, Milton, Pa., J. | Trenton, and New York in 1828; Wilmington in Jonathan Sweisforb; Company G, Williamsport, ters at the St. James Hotel.

National Guard of Pennsylvania was organized in 1865, and has remained a solid organization ever since. When the State Guard was reorganized several years ago it was reduced from ten to eight companies, and expects, when in line, at least thirty pieces and a corps of twenty drummers. The uniform is that of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, United States fatigue. The roster of officers is as follows: Colonel, Joseph H. Gray; lieutenantcolonel, James Glenn; major, William H. Hope; adjutant, Dave M. Howe; quartermaster, George B. Alexander; commissary, T. J. Wallace; paymaster, George N. Lacock; surgeon, J. Guy McCandless; assistant surgeons, Alexander A. McCandless, William M. Johnson; chaplain, Samuel J. Wilson. Company A-Captain, E. L. Huff; first lieutenant, H. C. Stewart; second lieutenant, Charles

Company B-Captain, J. M. G. McClung; first lieutenant, George R. Taylor; second lieutenant, John Anderson. Company C-Captain, John W. Nesbit: first lieutenant, William D. Clark; second lieutenant,

James E. McCabe. Company E-Captain, James Archibald; first lleutenant, Charles W. Harlan; second lieutenant, John T. Moore. Company F-Captain, P. D. Perchment; first lieutenant, S. W. Jeffries. Company G-Captain, James L. Graham, first Hentenant, William J. Hamilton; second lieutenant. H. B. Henderson.

Company I-Captain John A. Fox ; first lieutenant, George A. Cook; second lieutenant, S. C. Ben-Company K-Captain William J. Glenn; first

icutement, John Steel; second lieutenant, M. B. THE EIGHTEENTH REGIMENT.

This is one of the oldest military organizations in our country. Company A, now commanded by Captain James K. Carmack, was originally organized in September, 1831, by Captain langus L. Baker, U. S. A., then in command of the United States arsenal at Pittsburg, and called the "Imquesue Grays." It has been in continual orgatilization since, and yet carries on its roll as orary members" several of its original survivors. It has always preserved a high reputation the city and State of its birth. It volunteered in the Mexican war in 1846, and distinguished itself in many engagements, notably at the siege of Puebla. In April, 1861, they entered the three holds a charter as such under the State laws months service as, Company B, Twelfth Pennsyl- of Pennsylvania, and was organized January vania Infantry. In July, 1861, they entered the 16, 1855. The present officers are: Captain, John three-years service and served actively till the D. McFarland; first lieutenant, Jacob A. Brown; Expiration of service, and participated in all the second lieutenant, Harry T. Rowley. The dress land-fought battles of the Army of the Poto- uniform consists of dark-blue single-breasted coat, hare. In 1850 its membership was large enough to same cut as United States regulation, trimmed warrant the formation of a battalion of four com- with buff collar and cuffs and on rear of coat; panies, which was soon after increased to eight | brass shoulder-scales; pants are dark blue, a shade companies, a full regiment in Pennsylvania, and lighter than the coat, with buff stripe; all the buff designated the Eighteenth Regiment National is edged with garnet silk cord; white leather Guard Pennsylvania. They have been quick to waist-belt and double cross-belts; patent-leather respond to every duty, and his honorable record as cartridge-box, and bayonet scanbard, and lynxa company, as well as its members who held rank skin shako, with brass chin-scale and gold-em-0:25ide, reflects a glory on its name that can never | broidered tassel, with silver letters "W. I." They fade. Richard C. Drum, now Adjutant-General parade their full strength-viz., sixty muskets-at United States army, served as a private with this the inauguration. Mexican war till his promotion to a lieutenancy in the United States army. His General T. A. Rowley, then captain of the compride and interest is still active, and to this service | pany, tendered the services of the company to the the National Ghard of the different States owe the Governor, which were accepted, and it was organexent interest and active co-operation of the ized into three companies, having been recruited Utilted States army. Brigadier-General James A. to 232 men. These three companies, with others Fain Deputy Quartermaster-General United States from the vicinity of Pittsburg, were organized Rim, also culisted in this company and served | into the Thirteenth Pennsylvania Volunteers, and with it till his promotion in the United States at the expiration of the three months' service re-

and paymaster, Joe T. Speer; quartermaster, Joel Company A-Captain, James K. Carmack; Brat Bentemant, J. Courad Kay.

Company B-Captain, Lewis T. Brown; first lieutenant, James B. Steen. Company C-Captain, E. Morgan McCombs: first lieutenant, John Purkiss; second lieutenant, William M. Hamilton

Company D-Captain, J. Q. Campbell; first lieuenant, G. Ferd Shriver; second lieutenant, Samuel E. Emmett. Company E-Captain, William K. Walthers; first licutenant, Herman Straub; second licutenant,

John Seiferth.

Company F-Captain, Norman M. Smith; sec ond lieutenant, George W. Davis. Company G-First lieutenant, A. J. Logan; second lieutenant, Charles E. Lea. Company H-Captain, Harmar D. Denny; first lieutenant, Samuel A. Buchanan. THE KEYSTONE BATTERY,

First Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania. located at Philadelphia, was organized April 21, 1861. Its present officers are: J. O. Winchester captain; M. C. Stafford, first lieutenant, senior James A. Ford, first lieutenant, junior; Thomas L. Marshall, second lieutenant. The uniform is that of the National Guard of the State of Pennsylvania, which is the United States Army fatigue uniform, with the exception of the dress belt instead of the black. It will parade sixty men and three

The battery at its organization was commanded by Captain Matthew Hastings, and under his command entered the service of the United States in August, 1862, serving principally in the defenses of Washington, D. C., for one year. It was finally assigned to the first division, third corps, Army of the Potomac, which it joined at South Mountain on the 10th of July, 1863, participating in the pursuit of Lee's army after its retreat from Gettysburg, and being in the engagements of Wapping Heights and Front Royal, and was mustered out about August 20, 1863, after serving some days beyond the time for which, it was enlisted, It again, under the same commanding officer, entered the service in 1864 for one hundred days, serving principally in the State: In addition to the original organization, two batteries were formed and mustered into the service of the State of Pennsylvania during the several emergenbrings 450 men and a band of twenty-eight pleces. cies. The battery was afterward reorganized as a The Eighth Regiment is composed of companies pert of the National Guard of Pennsylvania being urer, Isaac Westheimer. commanded successively by Captains Matthew Hastings, John V. Creely, Stephen B. Paulterer, and its present commander, J. O. Winchester. During the labor riots of 1877 the battery took an active their respective localities. It has been in service | part at Pittsburg, the present captain being then in all the riots since its organization, notably those first lieutenant in command, and lost one of its in the Molly Maguire regions and those of 1877. | most valued officers, the lamented Second Lieuten-The regiment has its own rations and quarters in ant J. Dorsey Ash, who was killed by the rioters.

Captain Winchester is the only member of the command who was present at its organization, and has served continuously since. Lieutenant Marshall, Private Wolfington (late quartermaster-sergeant), and Corporal Hollick are the only members who served with it under its enlistment in in 1872, and was on duty during the riots of 1877 at | the United States Service. Since its organization Pittsburg, Pa., and it was under its guards that the | the battery has been detailed to fire every salute on national holidays, and whenever occasion required, and has never had a man injured in such service, owing to the care exercised by both officers onel, Alfred Rupert; lieutenant-colonel, William and men. On all occasions of parado in its own city the battery has turned out horsed but to-day it parades only its Gatling guns, the ten-pounder Parrott guns being left at home on account of the impossibility of procuring horses in Washington. PHILADELPHIA STATE FENCIBLES.

The corps from which this battalion was formed was organized May 26, 1813, and has had a continuous existence to this day which has been of a most lively and interesting character, taking part in all events of any note during its career, and was in active service in the War of 1812 and '13, in Mexico. and the rebellion, to which it sent two companies. who, after the three months' service, re-enlisted for the war, many of its members becoming officers in the many regiments formed in Philadelphia and vicinity. The original members were such men as Joseph R. Ingersoll, Clement C. Biddle, Richard Willing, the Sergeants, Whartons, National Guard of Pennsylvania was organized | Williams, James J. Barclay, still living; John C. August 21, 1874, under the following officers, who | McCall, and many whose families are still in exist-The commanders of the corps have been but

McCall in 1815, Charles F. Roberts 1816 to 1819, and

Moran Carothers; Company D, Williamsport, Pa., 1829; Easton in 1830; New York, Boston, Salem, A. J. Zout; Company E, Sunbury, Pa., Wm. Providence, Newark, Patterson and Easton in Heim Company F, Danville, Pa., 1832; New Brunswick in 1834; Albany and Troy in 1838; Norristown and Harrisburg in 1839; Easton Pa., F. J. Burrows; Company I, Canton, Pa.; in 1840; Mount Holly in 1847; Valley Forge in 1854, tain Newton Landon. The uniform is the regulation | 1858, and 1859; Atlantic City August 31, 1860. Early fatigue uniform of the United States army, and the | in 1871 the corps was reorganized, and the present regiment is drilled, disciplined, and equipped in | Major John W. Ryan elected its commander: durexact accordance with the rules and regulations | Ing his command it became the most active in the of the United States army. It will bring about 500 | State, and was known as "Pennsylvania's men and a regimental band. Its quarters are in Champion" company. Its career has been the War Department, with regimental headqura- a most enviable and active one and is known throughout the entire country, and has been conspicuous for its entertainment of the many visiting organizations, as well as for its numerous excursions. Wilmington and Atlantic City were visited in 1872; Harrisburg, Baltimore, and Washington and in camp for ten days at Atlantic City in 1873; Boston in 1875; Washington live hundred officers and men, exclusive of a band of and in service during the labor riots at Pittsburg and Scranton in 1877 and Harrisburg in 1879 During 1880 visited New York in May, Atlantic City in August, as well as in camp for a week during latter month. Of the many organizations entertained by the corps were Company A. Thirteenth Brooklyn, October, 1871; Albany Burgess Corps, March 7, 1873; and in same year escorted Fifth Maryland Regiment; Boston Fusileers, June 17, 1874; Spanish Engineer Corps, Putnam Phalanx of Hartford, Centennial Legion, New Haven. Grays, Cincinnati Light Guard during the Centennial year; Harrisburg City Grays, Centennial

Legion, Gate City Guards of Atlanta, Ga., and Company E, First Regiment N. G. P., during 1879. During July, 1878, the corps was organized into a battation, and at present is officered as follows: Major, John W. Ryan; adjutant, Charles Berger; commissary, Edward E. Packer: assistant commissary, George L. Eastman; quartermaster, Edward S. McGlue, jr.; assistant surgeon, A. P. Blomer, M. D.; chaplain, Rev. R. H. Allen, D. D. Company A-Captain, George W. Moser; first lieutenant, Charles W. Mecke; second lieutenant, James W. Vogdes. Company B-Captain, W. Wes. Chew; second lieutenant, John M. Lyons. Company C-Captain, Robert R. Bringhurst; first lieutenant, C. V. D. Smith; second lieutenant, W. H. Hambleton. Company D-Captain, George W. P. Simpson; first lieutenant. Oscar Moore; second lieutenant.

J. W. Shellenberger. Non-commissioned staff-Sergeant-major, James Stimmel; commissary-sergeant, Harry C. Briggs; quartermaster-sergeant, W. H.C. Shubert; hospital steward, R. J. Kelley. The battalion numbers about 275 men, including officers, to which a band and drum corps is also attached. The dress uniform consists of lynx-skin shako, blue dress-coat, with epaulettes, light-blue pants, with gold stripe, white cross and waistbelts and over-gaiters; officers wearing same uniform, with gold epaulettes, dress belts. The overcoats are similar to those worn by the Spanish Engineer Corps during 1876.

THE WASHINGTON INFANTRY The Washington Infantry, of Pittsburg, Pa.,

At the call of President Lincoln, in April 1861 army. In the late war it furnished the following enlisted, and, owing to some informality, the officers: Major-General James S. Negley, Colonel number of the regiment was made the One hun-Devid Campbell, Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry; dred and second, although one of the first in the Colonel George S. Hayes Eighth Pennsylvania Re- field. This company furnished out of its ranks Serves Colonel R. Biddle Roberts, First Pennsylva- during the war two generals, Thomas A. Rowley Markeserves, and many others of lesser rank. In and William Creighton; eight colonels, three the numbers killed in action were Colonel Samuel majors, seventeen captains, and nineteen lieu-Block, Sixty-second Pennsylvania Infantry; tenants. Of its original membership there were Colonel Oliver H. Rippey, Sixty-first Pennsylva- twenty-one killed and thirty-three wounded durhas Colonel Bart G. Leiper, First Kentucky In- ing the war. After the war the company was Colonel John W. Patterson, Old Thirteenth organized, with General Thomas A. Rowley as Pennsylvania; Major Frank Ward, Fifteenth (An- captain, and served in the National Guard of Green Cavalry; Major John Poland, Old Thir- Pennsylvania (always ranking superior teach : Cartain Robert Hampton, of Hampton's in the Adjutant-General's annual reports) until Fenny Ivania Artillery. Important civil positions October 24, 1878, as Washington Infantry. have been filled by the survivors and deceased Company A, Nineteenth Regiment, N. G. P., members. Following is the roster of the officers; and did faithful service seven weeks during the forced to march from Corry to Franklin, Pa. Colonel, Prody N. Guthrie; lieutenant-colonel, memorable riots of July and August, 1877, both in Woodraff McKnight; major, Chambers McKibben; Pittsburg and the anthracite coal regions. At the Rejutant, George Hersh; surgeon, William W. Cole; reorganization of the National Guard the Ninecaptain and commissary, J. Scott Ward; captain teenth Regiment was disbanded, and the Washington Infantry was assigned to one of the other regiments in Pittsburg simply as a "letter company." Application was made to the Governor to

lege which had been accorded to other old companies in the eastern part of the State, which was also refused. The result was, the officers resigned and the company was disbanded from the service of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. The members having considerable pride in the old company, and, believing that it was possible to keep up the organization without State aid, organized under the charter as a citizens' corps. Arms and equipments were purchased out of the camp treasury, and it ranks to-day one of the best and most popular organizations in Western Pennsylvania-thoroughly equipped, both in the civil and military department, and under the best of discipline; composed of men of good moral character, who alone have borne the expense of keeping up an independent military organization. TITUSVILLE CITIZENS' CORPS.

The Titusville Citizens' Corps was organized as an independent military company on the 10th of June, 1872, and incorporated by special act of the Pennsylvania Legislature February 27, 1873. The company has a life, honorary, and active membership of one hundred men. It usually parades with from fifty to eighty men in line. All officers hold their commissions for one year, dating from the second Monday in June arnually. The uniform of the corps consists of a full-dress suit of cadet gray, after the style, with some changes of stripe on coat and pants, of that worn by the famous New York Seventh Regiment, with overcoats, knapsacks, and white bearskin hats. The corps visited Philadelphia during the holding of the Centennial Exposition in 1876, and encamped from August 2 to the 13th in Fairmount Park, where in parades and reviews it won high military honors. The Citizens' Corps has always appeared at annual reviews and inspections of the State troops until within the past two years, when the adjutant-general-has not seen fit to recognize independent companies, that keep up an efficient organization without being a burden of taxation upon the people of the State. The present officers of the corps are:

Civil-President, William Varian, M. D.; vicepresident, W. B. Sterrett; recording secretary, E. C. Bell; financial secretary, J. M. Henderson; treas-

Military officers-Lieutenant-colonel, W. B. Roberts; commanding ; captain; J. B. Olmsted ; first lieutenant, T. J. Smiley; second lieutenant, S. P. Franchot; third lieutenant, C. J. Fox; adjutant, F. J. Shauer.

The corps will parade with seventy men in line and a band of twenty-one instruments. The command will to-morrow leave Washington for New York, where it will remain for two days, and then reach home by way of Albany, Syracuse, and Buffalo, at which places the corps will be the guests of the local military. The corps is quartered at Willard's Hotel, and has engaged quarters at the Grand Central, New York. THE HARRISBURG CITY GRAYS were organized in May, 1861, as the First City Zouaves by Captain De B. Randolph Keim, now of "Newspaper Row." They served with great credit for nine months as Company A, One hundred and twenty-seventh Pennsylvania Volunteers. On their muster-out, in June, 1863, thirty-seven of the members were commissioned in the regular and volunteer service." Reorganized as a company of the Pennsylvania National Guard in March, 1869, they at once took high rank in the military of the State. On the promotion of its captain, J. Wesley Awl, to assistant adjutant-general of the Fifth Division staff, First Lieutenant Thomas F. Malony was elected captain, and shortly afterward the company adopted as its uniform that of the Seventh New York Regiment and changed its name to the "Harrisburg City Grays." On the reorganization of the Pennsylvania National Guard, in 1874, the company was assigned as Company D. Eighth Regiment, Reports of the Adjutant-General of Pennsylvania and the leading papers of the State speak in the highest terms of the drill and was in service five weeks during the labor troubles of 1877, and has always received special credit in orders from its military superiors for faithful performance of duty. Its present officers are: Thomas F. Maloney, captain; Joseph E. Rhoads, first lieutenant; George E. Reed, second lieutenant. Governor Hoyt, of Pennsylvania, has selected this company as his escort upon the trip to Washington. In escorting the Governor to his hotel the company will parade in high bearskin hats and State greatcoats. On the inaugural parade it will of the Eighth Regiment, which will hold the right of the Second Brigade, National Guard of Pennthe maximum allowed by Pennsylvania State laws.

cated at Columbia, Pa., was organized on the 24th day of April, 1877, and has never been distinguished in any other way than as Company H. Eleventh Regiment, N. G. P. Its officers are: Captain, D. Brainard Case; first lieutenant, H. S. Gravbill; second lieutenant, Daniel Sample. Its uniform is that of the Pennsylvania National Guard, consisting of dark-blue blouse and light-blue pantaloons with United States army regulation fatigue cap. The organization numbers about fifty-five men. At the outbreak of the labor riots of 1877, although just uniformed and not yet armed by the State, carrying only such revolvers as they could obtain on short notice, they marched to the cars through a hooting mob, who had threatened that no soldier should leave the town. They joined their regiment at Malvern, and, having been thoroughly armed and equipped, took part in Wood. Governor Hartranft's advance to Pittsburg. By the last adjutant-general's report for Pennsylvania it will be seen that out of nearly two hundred infantry companies in the National Guard of Penn-

COLUMBIA'S CRACK COMPANY.

Company H, Eleventh Regiment, N. G. P., lo-

sylvania this one ranks seventh in the State and third outside of the city of Philadelphia. THE ARTHUR ST. CLAIR GUARDS, from Greensburg, Pa., named after General St. Clair, of the Revolution, is known as Company I, and attached to the Tenth Regiment, N. G. P., Colonel A. L. Hawkins commanding. It was organized December 31, 1878. Officers-Captain, James M. Laird: first lieutenant, vacant; second lieutenant, Jack K. Johnston. Regulation uniform and equipments of regular army. Including a band of twenty pieces, it brings into line about seventy men. The command is composed entirely of young men, the captain being the oldest, aged forty-three. It is the first military organization that has existed in Greensburg since the Mexican war, all previous efforts to form one having signally failed. Its honorary members embrace none but the best citizens and reputable honorably discharged soldiers of the war of 1812, of the Mexican war, and of the war of the rebellion, General Richard C. Drum, Adjutant-General United States army, a native and long a resident of this place, is included among its hono-

THE GIRARDVILLE GRAYS, Company F, Eighth Regiment Penusylvania In fantry, were organized December 15, 1876; captain, Theodore F. Hoffman; first lieutenant, George Nattress; second lieutenant, H. J. Davis. They have a gray dress uniform, trimmed with black and gold, but on this occasion parade in the State of Pennsylvania regulation uniform, which is similar to the regulars' uniform. They bring sixty men to the inauguration. This command served the State during the riots of 1877, being three weeks in their service, having all members present for duty during the riots-not a single absentee. It is the color company of the regiment.

THE QUAY. GUARDS. Company E, Fifteenth Regiment, N. G. P., of West Bridgewater, Beaver County, Pennsylvania, better known by their local name of the Quay Guards, will arrive, it is expected, this morning, with fifty muskets. The company was organized April 11, 1879, and was named after Hon. M. S. Quay, formerly of Beaver County, now a resident of Philadelphia, and Secretary of the Commonwealth. Its officers are: Captain, S. J. Swager (resigned December, 1880, re-elected January 29, 1881); first ieutenant, Daniel W. Miller; second lieutenant, M. Porter. The uniform is the same as worn throughout the National Guard. A fine dress uniwhen completed, will not be surpassed by any in

SALTSBURG SOLDIERS. Company B, Tenth Infantry, Fourth Brigade, N. G. P., stationed at Saltsburg, Pa., was recruited by Major Robert J. Irvin, and mustered into the service February 19, 1879, by Colonel Chill. W. Hazzard, brigade inspector. Major Robert J. Irvin was elected captain, and still commands the company. At the annual inspections for 1879 and 1880. made by Adjutant-General Latta and Colonel Gibson, of the United States army, this company carried off the first honors of the regiment for having passed the best inspection. The officers are: Captain, Robert J. Irvin; first lieutenant, J. E. Gill; second lieutenant, W. W. Graham. Uniform-Officers and men are uniformed and equipped throughout according to United States army regulations. THE VINCENT GUARD, of Corry, Pa. was organized in 1869. Its officers are: Captain, Isaac B. Brown; first lieutenant, Marvin Wight; second lieutenant W. Ed. Marsh. Uniform is the Pennsylvania regulation; number about forty-five. The company was in the field during the railroad riots of 1877 three weeks, being private from sickness caused by this march.

THE YORK CITY GRAYS. Company A, Eighth Regiment Infantry, Second State capital and the immense railroad interests Brigade, National Guard of Pennsylvania, were or- at West Albany. ganized 4th of July, 1875, as an independent company. Application was made to the Colonel and the Phylorendry Imperieur marching, as be allowed to retain the old historical company Pennsylvania October 5, 1877, by Governor Hart- Colonel James R. Hitch- The Blues were organized on the 7th of May, 1878, some of the members have a duly authorized himp, name, but was refused. Then the authorities were ranft. The regiment is commanded by Colonel J. cock, and now by Colonel S. Oscar Ryder, who was by Captain Farley. The members of the company while others who have grown gray and stiffened requested to grant permission to form a battalion of four companies of Washington Infantry, a privilege which had been accorded to other old companies. P.S. Gobin. Officers of the company: Captain, E. Z. Strine; first lieutenant, Lewis Small; second lieutenant, Amos P. Detoff. Uniform of company and regiment: United States army regulation, fully equipped. Numbers three officers and fifty men.

THE NANTICOKE NAPOLEONS.

Company G, Ninth Regiment National Guard of ized July 7, 1879. Its officers are: Captain, John Dunn; first lieutenanf, W. H. Bates: second lieutenant, F. P. Crotzer. The uniforms are the same sixty men in line. WILLIAMSPORT WARRIORS. Company G, Twelfth Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, belongs in Williamsport, and is a fine-looking body of young men. It was organized about a year ago, and has adopted for its uniform the United States fatigue. The officers of the company are: Captain, Frank J. Burrows; first lieutenant, Henry C. Parsons; second lieutenant, William P. Barker. They will have fifty men in line to-day, and during their stay here are quartered at 936 F street northwest. A COMPANY FROM COOPERSTOWN. Company E, Sixteenth Regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania, belongs in Cooperstown, and was organized October 7, 1871. Its present officers are: Captain, R. E. Van Naten: firs. lieutenant, Thomas S. Minium; second lieutenant, George N. Crodle. Their uniform is that prescribed by the regulations of the State National Guard, and the company will present forty-seven privates and their officers in line to-day.

Company H, Tenth Regiment N. G. P., of Washington, Pa., which was organized July 1, 1872, will arrive this morning with sixty men. The officers ace: Captain, George W. Thompson; first lieutenant James W. Sprowls; second lieutenant, R. L. Thompson. The uniform is the United Statemegulation. THE OXFORD GUARDS, otherwise Company F, Eleventh Pennsylvania N. G., one of the crack companies, of the State, was organized February 16, 1875. It will parade with fifty-five men, attired in the National Guardregulation uniform. The officers are: Captain, T. D. Alexander; first lieutenant, A. Carhart; second lieutenant, William S. Spear. DANVILLE'S DEFENDEDS Company F, Twelfth Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, from Danville, was organized

July 31, 1879. Its officers are: Captain, J. Sweisfort; first lieutenant, A. B. Patton; second lieutenant I. Lechler. Rank and file about fifty men; the uniform is the regular United States uniform. THE KEYSTONE GUARDS. Company E, Eighth Regiment National Guard of Pennsylvania, was organized December 30, 1878, First Lieutenant W. Craig McDowell, command-uniform is the United States army regulation, and it brings to Washington forty-five men. THE SHERIDAN TROOP, of Tyrone, Pa., organized July 15, 1871. Officers Captain, C. E. W. Jones; first Illeutenant, George Gensamer; second lieutenant, Thomas M. Fleck Brings fitty-five officers and men to Washington. Uniform, United States fatigue, light blue regular

ing: second lieutenant, B. Frank Gilmore. Its cavalry overcoats; dismounted. THE SLATINGTON RIPLES. Of Slatington, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, will arrive this morning, with forty-five men and three officers. The Rifles were organized on July 17, 1875. The uniform is the United States fatigue blue. The officers of the command are: Captain, George McDowell; first lieutenant, W. L. Williams; second lieutepant, J. M. Kress,

OTHER STATES IN LINE. Citizen Soldiery from Every Quarter o

the Union. Pennsylvania's grand contribution to to-day's pageant will be supplemented by the appearance in line of some of the most famous orthe State during the Williamsport riots of 1872, two ganizations from other States. Nearly every State | Will Gordon; sergeants, F. J. Stearns, James D. terms during the Schuylkill coal riots of 1875, and of the North will be represented, and the South will send its quota. THE FIFTH WARYLAND. The Fifth Regiment (Infantry) Maryland National Guard will arrive from Baltimore via the Baltimore and Ohio road at leight o'clock this morning. This regiment, which was organized May 10, 1867, has won great renown for its proficiency in drill and soldierly bearing. The uniform is of gray, with black and gold trimmings, and white cross-belts. To-day they will wear blue overcoats, knapsacks, and blankets rolled. appear in Pennsylvania State uniform on the right | It is expected that the regiment will parade with four hundred men, with a band and drum corps of fifty-five pieces. The officers are : Major Stewsylvania. The company will parade sixty muskets, art Brown, commanding; adjutant, W. K. Whiting; quartermaster, R. I. Miller; commissary, E C. Johnson; ordnance, John Landstreet; surgeon W. H. Crim; assistant surgeon, W. F. Lockwood paymaster, W. T. Frick; chaplain, Joseph Rey-

> Company A-Captain, E. Thomas; first lieutenant, W. S. Whiteley. Company B-Captain, L. D. Lipscomb; second Heutenant, R. Hamilton Company C-Captain, R. P. Brown; first lieutenant, G. S. Nelson; second Heutenant, J. S. Gorman. Company D-Captain, G. C. Cole ; first lieutenant,

nolds.

Company E-Captain, C. C. Hall, Company F-Captain, W. S. Anderson; first lieutenant, S. T. Henkle. Company G-Captain, C. H. Reeves; first lieu tenant, H. A. Williams. Company H-Captain, W. P. Zollinger; first lieutenant, C. F. Albers; second lieutenant, W. S. Company I-First Lieutenant N. L. Goldsborough, commanding. Company K-Captain, W. P. Herbert; second lieutenant, F. N. Hoen.

E. N. Spencer; second lieutenant, G. E. Search.

THE ANNAPOLIS COMPANY. The Governor's Guard, Maryland National Guard, of Annapolis, Md., is expected to arrive this morning, at half-past eight o'clock, and will have about fifty of their seventy-five men in line. This company will be well remembered in Washington, having taken part in the ceremonies attending the unveiling of the Thomas statue, in November, 1879. It was organized August, 1877. The officers are : Captain, Louis Green ; first lieutenant, Edgar Hutton; second lieutenant, John H. Wells. The uniform of the Guards is of grav, with black trimmings; dress hat, gray, with feather plume of black; white cross and waist belt. The company will to-day wear knapsacks and overcoats and carry breech-loading rifles. The Governor's Guards is composed of men whose ages range from eighteen to thirty years. THE BOND GUARD INFANTRY, of Catonsville, Md., which will arrive this morning, will parade about forty-four strong. The uniform consists of gray swallow-tail coats, trimmed with black and gold; white epaulettes; gray pants, with two-inch black stripe; dark blue dress hats, with white pompon; sky-blue overcoats; white cross belts: also waist belt of same: patent-leather boxes and scabbards; waist plate inscribed "M. N. G.:" breast plate without letters; the boxes have the monogram "N. G." The officers are: D. Portieux Barnette, captain; Abner M. Reed, first lieutenant, and B. B. Griswold, jr., second lieuten-THE HAMILTON LIGHT INFANTRY. The Hamilton Light Infantry (of Cumberland) Maryland National Guard, was organized in June, 1879, and mustered into State service for three years from September 3, 1879. Officers: Captain, Robert H Gordon; first lieutenant, James Forsythe Harrison; second lieutenant, Bolivar S. Reger. The company is fully armed, uniformed, and equipped. The uniform is the regular army full-dress uniform, with the addition of the Maryland staff buttons. The company numbers fifty muskets, and sixty rank and file, with a full drum corps, a full brass band, handsomely uniformed. and comprising twenty pieces. Nearly one-half the company were in the Union army, and several | report, and still has a warm interest in its wel fare.

members in the Southern army during the war. THE NINTH NEW YORK REGIMENT. The famous Ninth New York Regiment, the ing, and will undoubtedly make a fine display on form has been ordered. The Quay Guards are the Avenue. It was organized in June, 1859, under quence of a political excitement attending the The guard will have about fifty men in line, building, at great expense, an armory, which, Colonel M. M. Van Buren, and upon the breaking gubernatorial election in the following November. out of the rebellion was the first organization in days' battle of the Wilderness, in Virginia.

Station, Va.; Thoroughfare Gap, Va.; Second Bull Va., and Cold Harbor, Va.

elected January 16, 1879, and assumed command February 11, 1879. The regiment will have in line to-day upward of 600 men, dressed in the wellknown blue uniform with red trimmings. The rester of officers is as follows:

L. Montgomery; major, W. B. Wetmore; adjutant, Pennsylvania, located at Nanticoke, was organ- C. L. Housman; quartermaster, R. A. Britton; commissary, J. V. Wheeler; surgeon, S. W. Roof; assistant surgeon, A. H. Doty; chaplain, E. A. Reed; inspector rifle practice, G. H. Witthaus; captains, as those in use by the regular army. They have J. C. C. Tallman, W. J. Kirkland, S. E. Japhs, W. P. Walton, J. A. Mulligan, Thomas Griffen, George W. Homans, George A. Hussey, J. L. Dennison, Isaac West.

During the recent campaign Colonel Ryder had command of the Produce Exchange Republicans, and was chiefly instrumental in getting up the memorable day-light meeting of merchants in THE UTICA CITIZENS' CORPS, of Utica, N. Y., arrived last evening, and is quartered at the Imperial. The commandis an old one, and its members and friends point with just pride to a most honorable military record, extending back almost half a century. The corps was organized in the year 1837 by the late Major E. K. Barnum, U.S. A., who was the first captain. On the 13th day of April, 1861, the corps volunteered as a company for the war, in one day its ranks being recruited to the full complement of one hundred men. On the 22d day of April, 1861, it was mustered into the service as Company A, Fourteenth New York State Volunteers, and on the 24th of April left Utica, under command of Captain (now General) James McQuade, remaining for the period of two years, for which the regiment enlisted. Few, if any, military organizations of its of $50. Visited State agricultural fair at Richsize in the country can point to so many persons who from its ranks as members have risen to high | drill, and lost; visited New York city September rank as officers in the service. Soon after returning from the war the survivors of the old corps reorganized as the same independent company, and up to the present-time have-won increased honor and commendation as citizen seldiers. The corps is now, as it has always been, composed largely of the young business and professional men of Utica. They are deeply interested in the welfare of the old organization, and they cherish, the memories and traditions of its past history as something of great value. On its honorary list of members may be found the names of Senator Roscoe Conkling, Congressman Cyrus D. Prescott, ex-Congressman Ellis H. Roberts, Dr. William H. Watson, surgeon-general State of New York, and many others of like character. The uniform is a dark blue dress-coat, with buff trimmings; dark blue pants, with buff stripe, and bear-skin shakos. The company carry improved Remington guns, have a handsome and complete outfit, and own their own equipment entire. They bring to Washington on this occasion four line officers, eight staff officers, and about sixty privates They are accompanied by the Gloversville Cornet Band of twenty-four pieces. The following are the names of officers and staff: Captain, John H. Douglass; first lieutenant, Major D. T. Everts; secand lieutenant, Egbert Bagg, jr.; third lieutenant, Edmund L. Munson. Staff-Adjutant, Captain James Miller; engineer, Lieutenant D. H. Gaffin; inspector, Colonel T. M. Davis; quartermaster, Lieutenant J. C. P. Kincard; judge-advocate, Lieutenant B. A. Clark; surgeon, Dr. J. G. Hunt; commissary, Lieutenant W. M. Storrs; chaplain, Rev. Charles H. Gardner.

was organized in January, 1877. The officers are : Captain, H. C. Thompson; first Heutenant, R. J. Oliphant; second licutenant, F. A. Neal. The style of uniform is light blue pants, red stripes, dark blue coat, trimmed with red, white cross belt and waist belt, and white plume. The corps brings to Washington fifty men and a band of twenty-five pieces. Following is the roster of the company Captain, H. C. Thompson: first lieutenant, Richard Oliphant; second licutenant, Frank A. Neal; first sergeant, W. S. Norton; quartermaster-sergeant Henderson, E. B. Mott, and Claud Houghten : corporals, H. H. Post, Fred S. Grigge, W. H. Plant, George W. Redfield, James Russo, J. R. Pierce, Fred Burch, and D. H. Tift; privates, Fred Adkins, George D. Hart, Robert S. Moore, William B. Phelps, jr., J. P. Tuttle, Owen Williams, George B. Wilcox, Charles H. Woodruff, jr., Robert Black, George L. Doolittle, Charles W. Hall, E. C. Bronson, A. N. Radeliff, R. P. Fitch, A. E. Bickford, B. W. Adkins, C. H. Corrigan, E. C. Berriman, W. A. Thompson, Delos Radcliff, Robert Gordon, ir., E Howe, Charles M. Cook, Lester A. Clark, Edward R. Cooper, Fred. S. Garland, Daniel O'Brion, Howard B. Spencer, John S. Weeks, W. Wallen, ir V. J. Weeks, I. D. Weeks, O. A. Lamoree, George Glynn, Owen Mattison, A. S. Gibbs, W. H. Griggs, r., Walter E. Griggs, and Alex. Bilque.

THE OSWEGO CITIZENS' CORPS

THE REMINGTON RIPLES. The Remington Rifle Corps, commanded by Captain Jacob Brazie, is located at Mohawk, N. Y., two miles east of the famous Remington Armory and Agricultural Works at Ilion, N. Y. The company was admitted as a part of the N. G. S. N. Y., January 3, 1879, and is designated and known as the thirty-first separate company of infantry, third division. It has a membership of seventy-three, rank and file. It is said by General F. E. Spinner and other promient men to be one of the best-drilled companies in the State. The uniform is cadet gray, same as the Seventh New York. trimmed with black and white; the hat is black bear skin, with gold tassel; white web belt. The officers are as follows: Captain, Jacob Brazie: first lieutenant, John J. Mabbitt; second lieutenant, James M. Bellinger; first sergeant, Deloss M. Dodge; sergeants, Charles W. Smith, Oscar Horton, Robert O. Osbourn, George C. Rasback; corporals, Albert Moyer, A. W. Bronson, Isaac Christman, Casper Morgan, David Robbins, Correy C. Brooks, Garret L. Van Slyke, and Frederick H. Sayles. They bring the whole command, accompanied by the famous Johnstown Cornet Band.

THE HAMPTON CADETS, One of the organizations that will attract especial attention in to-day's pageant is the battalion of cadets from Hampton Institute, Virginia, who will arrive this morning by the steamer Leary. It was expected that the Indian cadets from Car lisle, Pa., would also be present, but, owing to the expense of transportation and general bother of organized in 1878, but the personnel is changed The battalion will be commanded by Leiuthe Institute. The companies will be commanded by cadet officers. The battallion will appear uniformed in blouse and pants of cadet gray, gray cap, with black bands, the captains and lieutenants wearing chevrons above the elbow, as at West Point: the non-commissioned officers wearing chevrons on the fore arm, according to rank. The organization will bring between eighty and one hundred men, with a band of thirteen, composed of musicians selected from the students. The bat. talion will display the "Stars and Stripes" and available the battalion will appear without them. | iam Creasy, George Rains, The school is composed of colored and Indian students. Both races are represented in the officers, and the United States colors are carried by a Cheyenne Indian, formerly a warrior, and for James E. Manning, captain; George W. Gordan, three years a prisoner of war at Fort Marion. Florida. In the ranks are colored men who served as soldiers during the war of the rebellion. Indians who have served as Government scouts with our and the company brings about thirty men. The troops on the frontier, and others who have been in arms against us with Sitting Bull. The school gathers its students from twenty-eight States and six Territories, the West Indies, Liberia, and South Africa. President-elect Garfield was a member of its first board of trustees, and wrote its first annual THE PETERSBURG GUARDS.

of Petersburg, Va., were organized April 21, 1873, commissioned by Governor G. C. Walker June 17. pride of the late Jim Fisk, will arrive this morn- inspected and mustered into service by Colonel Thomas F. Owens, the Governor's aid. In conse-Petersburg was threatened with a riot. This com-New York to tender its services to the National pany was ordered to arms with the Petersburg | which come as the escort of the President-elect, is Government, and was mustered into the United Grays, and did guard duty for three nights. In one of the crack companies of Ohio, States service, for the war, at Camp Cameron, Wash- his annual report to the Legislature the adjutant | both in regard to discipline and proington, D. C., on June 18, 1861, by Captain Whip- of the State complimented the company very | ficiency in drill and the social standing of ple, U. S.A. It was engaged in sixteen battles, and highly for their promptness and coolness on the its members. The troop was organized in Sepsuffered terribly; so much so, that at one time its occasion. This company carries more testimonials | tember, 1877. The officers are as follows: Colonel strength was less than two hundred men; but by of honor than any company in the State. It has W. H. Harris, captain; Colonel G. A. Garretson, active recruiting it soon numbered nine hundred been in three competitive drills, at Fortress Monagain, so great was its popularity at home. Finally, roe, on the 7th of August, 1876, the judges being in 1864, when attached to the Second Brigade, United States officers. In 1877 the Guards Second Division, First Army Corps, the bravest of visited Lynchburg, and in a competition with the Guard," French army, except that yellow is substiits commanders, Colonel John A. Moesch, fell | champions of the State came off victorious, winwhile gallantly leading his command in the three ning as prizes two beautiful markers. On the 22d of October, 1878, the company again The names of the principal battles in which the visited Lynchburg Agricultural and Mechanical regiment was engaged are as follows: Harper's Fair, and there competed with five other com-Ferry, Va.; Cedar Mountain, Va.; Rappahannock panies and brought off the first prize, a very fine Officers: J. F. Peniston, captain; S. T. Smith, gold medal. The company's uniform, like all of Run, Va.; Chantilly, Va.; South Mountain, Md.; the Virginia troops, is of the cadet gray, with Antietam, Md.; Mine Run, Va.; first Fredericks- black trimmings, black epaulettes, high gray hats, burg, Va.; Chancellorville, Va.; Gettysburg, Pa.; black drooping plumes, white web waist-belts Wilderness, Va.; Laurel Hill, Va.; Spotsylvania, and cross-straps. The company is armed with Springfield breech-loading rifles, and its officers . Its record in the Orange riots of 1871, under are: Captain, J. H. Hill; first lieutenant, C. C. Me-Colonel James Fisk, jr., speaks for itself, and dur- Kenzie; second lieutenant, W. F. Jackson; orderly 1877 the Ninth was called to Albany, under the ton; quartermaster, R. H. Hampton. The comlate Colonel James R. Hitchcock, to protect the pany will parade with forty men, rank and file.

THE PETERSBURG BLUES, prize. During the campaign last fall they attended County. They will parade with forty men, uniformed in gray, trimmed with black, blue and white feathers, and brass buttons with the motto of Virginia on them. The officers are : Captain, P. L. Farley: first lieutenant, Jacob Johnson; second lieutenant, J. M. Farley; orderly sergeant, J. H. Walker; second sergeant, Madison Lowns; third sergeant, R. W. Pryor; fourth sergeant, R. C. Bolling: fifth sergeant, W. H. Johnson; quartermaster sergeant, J. A. C. Stevens; color sergeant, Henry Lundy; first corporal, J. K. Knight; second corporal, James Penn; third corporal, B. D. Scott; fourth corporal, E. J. Hamlin; color corporals, W. H. Jordan and H. B. Patterson. THE LANGSTON GUARDS, of Norfolk, who will arrive this morning by steamer, holds an honorable place in the Virginia militia. The company was organized November 7, 1873; officers commissioned April 24, 1874; mustered in the service September 5, 1874; first parade, January 1, 1875; entered their first competitive drill at Fortress Monroe, Va., August 7, 1876, winning the prize flag, which was the first prize, open to all companies in the State, seven other companies competing; visited Lynchburg, Va., September 3, 1877, where they entered another contest, in which they lost: visited Lynchburg again October 22, 1878, attended-Agricultural Fair, entering another competitive drill, winning a beautiful silver cup sixteen inches high, gotten up for the occasion, and very handsome; also a purse mond, Va., October 31, 1879, took part in another 15 and 16, 1880; marched in review before the mayor and aldermen, eliciting high compliments from them, as well as from the press of that city. During their stay they were the guests of the Veteran Guard, Colonel James B. Lee. Visited Boston and joined the great parade in honor of the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of that city. The Guard received the highest praise for their fine marching by the citizens and press. They take their name from the Hon. John Mercer Langston, Minister to Hayti. The following is a list of their officers: William H. Palmer, captain; Peter Shepherd, jr. first lieutenant; William H. Sparrow, second lieutenant; Robert E. Thoroughgood, brevet second lieutenant. The company numbers about fiftythree men, rank and file, about forty of whom are expected to visit Washington. The uniform consists of dark blue pants, black stripe, with white edging, gray cadet coats, brass shoulder scales, rimmed with yellow worsted fringe, white waist and cross belts, black (National Guard) caps, with yellow worsted plaits and white plumes THE SEABOARD ELLIOTT GRAYS, a colored militia company, will arrive, it is expected, this morning, by steamer. The company was organized March 11, 1875, and mustered into service March 11, 1878, under the command of First Lieutenant James O. Corprew. Lieutenant James O. Corprew was commissioned Captain by Governor F. W. M. Holliday in August 1878, at the same time Lee L. Rooks was commissioned as first lieutenant, Willfam H. Ackiss as second lieutenant, and George L. Blunt as second junior lieutenant. The company has visited many places since its organization, and won many praises by their soldierly appearance and good discipline. They visited Richmond, Va., July 3 and 4, 1879; Suffolk, Va., August, 1879; Franklin in 1878, and Washing ton, D. C., June 14, 15, and 16, 1880. The uniform is the Virginia gray. The company will bring thirty men and the Seaboard Brass Band of sixteen

THE RICHMOND STATE GUARD. The State Guard, of Richmond, Va., was or-Henry C. Gilliam, first lieutenant; D. W. A. Frayser, second lieutenant; Emmett Scott, second junior lieutenant; Asa Miller, orderly sergeant. The uniform of the officers consists of light blue pantaloons, with double gold stripe, doublebreasted frock coats, decorated with gold aiguillettes and gold epaulettes; National Guard beaver caps, with gold plaits and black feather. The company uniform is navy blue, trimmed with sky-blue, with caps same as those worn by the officers, ex- on the 5th of August, 1878. Officers: H. A Smith, cepting that they are adorned with white feathers captain; M. A. Newman, first lieutenant; Charles and blue and white plaits. The company musters | F. Glass, second lieutenant. Uniform : West Point forty-five men, rank and file. The company carries | cadet-gray, buff trimmings, national guard cut. the flag of the State of Virginia, embellished with It brings forty men. This company participated the coat of arms of the United States, THE LIBBY STATE GUARDS.

The Libby State Guards was organized in the town of Hampton, Va., in May, 1877, and is and reunion in I880. It was the only company officered as follows: Captain, James A. Fields: from Wisconsin that went to Atlanta, Georgia, last first lieutenant, Jerry M. Simpson; second lieutenant, William Randall; second junior lieutenant, Moses Anderson; first sergeant, William Kirby second sergeant, John Kirby; third sergeant, Willis Reynolds; fourth, James Allen; commanding sergeant, Robert Armstead: quartermaster sergeant, A. G. Lee; Nathaniel Burall, color sergeant; corporals, York Williams, Henry Goodman Montgomery Toliver, Rufus Jones, and Elijah Webb; drum-major, Thomas Jefferson. The uniform is regular old Virginia gray, trimmed with black; black beaver dress hat, with white pompon; cross belts and brass plates. The company is fiftyfive strong and brings to Washington about thirtyfive men.

THE VIRGINIA GOVERNOR'S GUARD. The Governor's Guard, Company E, First Regiment Virginia Volunteers, brings about fifty men. The uniorm is gray, like that of the New York Seventh Regtment. The company was organized the 22d of August, 1859, was in active service during the whole war, after which it was reorganized August 12, 1871. The letter was changed from G to E March 13, 1880, with the consent of the regimental officers. The names of the officers are J. H. Parater, captain; C. B. Childris, first lieutenant, and Robert Jones, second lieutenant.

THE HANNIBAL GUARDS. The Hannibal Guard, of Norfolk, Va., was organized on the 21st of February, 1880. Its officers are: Captain, William H. Mills; first lieutenant, John H. Smith; second lieutenant, Anthony A. Miller; bringing them to Washington, the project was third lieutenant, Dorey E. Timberlake; chaplain, abandoned. The Hampton Institute Cadets were | Rev. E. W. Williams; first sergeant, Derious White; second sergeant, Charles Feutress; third sergeant, yearly, owing to the changes among the students. William H. Butt; fourth sergeant, John W. Grinnell; fifth sergeant, James E. Timbertenan Henry Romeyn, Fifth Infantry, brevet lake; quartermaster, Frank Carter; color sergeant, captain United States army, tactical instructor at | Lewis White; corporals-first, Joseph Riggins; second, Isaac Wilson; third, Anthony Markly; fourth, Daniel Wilson; fifth. Jacob Spencer; sixth, Albert Dozier; seventh, Cincinnatus T. Wilson; eighth, Edward Bibblns. Privates-Washington Jones, James Thomas, Joseph Stiles, George Thorowgood, George Wilson, Arthur Williams, Robert Garrison, John H. Mebolson, James Miller, James Havnes, Aaron Davis, John James, John H. Smith. Nathaniel Riley, William Coles, Caleb S. Butt, Moses White, Samuel Williams, Hilliary Casey, William H. Hopper, Manuel McClennen, Robert P. the colors of the institute, the latter a plain blue Thomas, John A. Wood, Charles Griffin, Cyrus flag, with a white monogram of the in- Washington, Major Smith, Anthony Jones, Henry stitute in the centre. Markers will carry Shepherd, Link Brown, John Blue, John H. Small, guidons," school colors. Arms not being Moses Martin, Daniel Smith, Caleb Garrison, Will-

THE VIRGINIA GUARDS. The Virginia Guards, of Portsmouth, Va., were organized on the 19th of May, 1875. The officers are: first lieutenant: John Winslow, second lieutenant: John T. White, third lieutenant. The uniform is of gray, with black finishing (State regulation), full strength of the company is forty-eight men.

THE "GOVERNOR'S GUARD," Columbus, Ohio, was organized August 8, 1877. The officers are: Captain, L. R. Dotey; first lieutenant, C. G. Shepard; second lieutenant, F. Stewart Knox. The uniform is as follows: Darkblue frock coat, double breasted, shoulder knots, with monogram, "G. G.," dark blue pants, with black stripe, white belts, stiff hats, with white ball on top, and brass plate on front with monogram, "G, G." The best drilled man is distinguished by a gold badge, worn on breast, and a black plume

FIRST CLEVELAND TROOP. The First Cleveland Troop, of Cleveland, Ohio. first lieutenant; H. H. Baxter, second lieutenant; Dr. N. Schneider, surgeon; C. T. Collins, chaplain. The uniform is similar to the "Artillery of the tuted for scarlet. The troop brings fifty men to Washington.

The John Gill Engineer Corps, of Orange, N. J., was organized on the 1st of August, 1880 first lieutenant: Charles Gibbons, second lieutenant; C. P. Daum, orderly sergeant. The uniform is dark blue. The corps brings fifty men. THE IOWA VETERAN COMPANY.

THE JOHN GILL ENGINEERS.

Company I, First Regiment Iowa National Guard, was organized as an independent command in May, 1875, as the Continental Light Guards, and uniformed accordingly in March, 1877. They were assigned to the First Regiment as Company I. The company is composed entirely of veterans, many of whom have seen considerable service in various capacities and difanother colored company, is expected to arrive ferent arms of the service. The members of the Since the war it has been successively commanded | early this morning, and will parade in battalion | company trust that reasonable allowance will be pany, incorporated with the National Guard of by Colonel John N. Wilcox, Colonel James Fisk, jr., with the Petersburg Guards and the Flipper Guards. made for any apparently imperfect marching, as uniformed themselves at their own expense, and a with service and the lapse of years will hardly few months after their organization entered a com- step with the promptness and vigor of their petitive drill at Lynchburg, where they distin- younger days. The company is fully organized, guished themselves, though they did not win the with a quartermaster and commissariat, and will quarter in tents while here, in true soldier fashion. Colonel, S. Oscar Ryder; lieutenant-colonel, M. P. the raising of a Garfield and Arthur flag in Sussex The company will remain here until the 7th or 8th, to allow the men to visit some of the many places of interest. It musters sixty-seven muskets, four musicians, and three commissioned officers, Captain Fernando C. Merrill commanding. The uniform is of buff and blue ; cut-away coat, with buff facings and gold-lace trimming; buff breeches and blue stockings; buff vest, with gold-lace trimming; black cocked hat, with tri-colored cockade; black plume and gold lace; black necktie, buff cross-and-waist belt. THE CAMBEN COMPANY.

Company O, Sixth Regiment National Guard of New Jersey, from Camden, was organized September 11, 1869. Its present officers are: Captain, Joseph C. Lee (major-elect of regiment); first Heutenant, William J. Browning; second lieutenant, J. Oscar Nicherals. The uniform consists of a dark-blue frock coat, single-breasted. with New Jersey State gilt button, one row down front and three on each sleeve; light-blue pants, dress hat (visor in front), blue pompon; white cross-belts and waist-belt, with blue fatigue cap attached on waist-belt behind light-blue overcoats; knapsack with large figure 6 on back, and gray blanket rolled on top, and carrying the Springfield breech-loading rifle, calibre 43. They bring to Washington about fifty-five men. They bring with them the T. M. K. Lee, jr., Post 5, G. A. R. flute and drum corps of ten pieces. THE SEDGWICK GUARD.

The Sedgwick Guard, Company B, Fourth Regiment, Connecticut National Guard, from Bridgeport, Connecticut, was organized in September, 1865. Officers: Captain George W. Cornell, commanding; first lieutenant, Francis A. King; second lieutenant, Wilfred T. Van York, and has sixty men in line. Uniform: Double-breasted dark blue coat, with light blue trimmings; light blue pants, with dark blue stripes; dark blue cloth helmet, with gold spike and trimmings; knapsack and blue blanket. The company is armed with the Peabody rifle. It numbers sixty men. Its special duty is the escorting of Governor Bigelow from his hotel to position in line on the Mall. Its headquarters are Eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue. This company has had the letter "B" since it was first organized. It has been commanded by Captains William H. Lacey, R. B. Fairchild, Hobart Brinsmore, John Atkinson, Henry North, Charles A. Blakeman, and George W. Cornell. It has been in every encampment with the regiment, and has frequently been called on for escort duty, and on occasions of ceremony. In the fall of 1870 it did efficient service in breaking up a large congregation of New York roughs who invaded Bridgeport to have a prize-fight,

THE WATERLOO RIPLES. The Waterloo Rifles, of Waterloo, De Kalb County, Indiana, was organized and mustered into the State service September, 1, 1879. Most of the members are young, but there are some who were with General Sherman on his triumphant march to the sea, some with General Grant at Fort Donelson, and others with President-elect General James A. Garfield at Chickamauga. The company attended the reception at Indianapolis in December, 1879, given in honor of General Grant, and was the second company in the procession. The company has participated in several sham battles, and has always been fortunate enough to be on the winning side. The officers are: Captain, R. Wes. McBride; first lieutenant, John W. Patterson; second lieutenant, John C. Brand. The company brings to Washington about seventy-five men. The atyle of uniform is the fatigue dress of the United States army.

THE TORBERT GUARDS. The Torbert Guards, Company B, First Regiganized May 14, 1878, under a special act of the ment, Delaware Volunteer Militia, was organ-Legislature, as an independent and detached com- ized February 16, 1880. Officers-George W. Mar-C. Wiswall, second lieutenant; Theodore Town send, first lieutenant and quartermaster of regiment; William J. Gray, drum major. The company has a drum corps of six, and forty-one non-commissioned officers and privates; total number fifty-four. The members wear the regular United States infantry uniform.

THE JANESVILLE GUARDS. The Jamesville (Wis.) Guards were organized in the parade at the the Grant reception in Chicago, and took the first prize at the competitive drill in Milwaukes, at the veteran encampment October. The guards are all young men.

MARYLAND VETERANS.

A Grand Army Legion to Appear in the Parade. The Department of Maryland Grand Armythe Republic, will make a fine display in today's pageant. The different posts comprising the department, with the exception of one or two that are unable to come, will arrive in the city this morning in time to form for the parade. The following shows the organization of the department: Department officers-Department commander, General William E. W. Ross; senior vicedepartment commander, W. W. Walker; junior vice-department-commander, R. H. Cameron: medical director, Dr. A. W. Dodge; chaplain, Rev. S. K. Herr; council of administration, J. W. C. Cuddy, Leroy E. Baldwin, C. C. Speed, W. H. Sheppard, John W. Saville, Department staff-John H. Suter, assistant adjutant-general: William H. Searles, assistant quartermaster-general; R. N. Bowerman, inspector; H. L. Emmons, udge-advocate; Charles L. Marburg, chief muster ng officer: John C. Erdman, assistant inspector Aides-de-camp-Charles H. Richardson, Robert W. Scarlett, William O. Saville, Samuel E. Young, George B. Creamer, N. M. Rittenhouse, George W. Johnson, William H. Foreman, F. T. Murray, Jessa West. The department officers and staff are mounted and in full uniform. Post organizations are: Wilson, No. 1, Baltimore, Robert G. King, commander; Reynolds, No. 2, Frederick, John A. Steiner, commander; Dushane, No. 3, Baltimore, Frank M. Smith, commander; Reno, No. 4, Hagerstown, W. W. Walker, commander; Tvier, No. 5. Cumberland, Levi Shaw, commander; Custer, No. 5, Baltimore, H. C. Hayden, commander; Lincoln, No. 7, Baltimore, W. H. Spriggs, commander; Denison, No. 8, Woodberry, John Steigerwald, commander; ----, No. 9, North East, J. H. McCracken, commander; No. 10. - Elkton, John E. Wilson, commander; No. 11, Harry Howard, Baltimore, W. H. Weigel, commander; No. 12, Willman, Mechanicstown, John R. Rouzer, commander; No. 13, Burns, Westminster, W. A. McKellip, commander; No. 14, Le Compte, Preston, J. B. Isler, commander; No. 15, Sedgwick, Annapolis, Thomas J. Hubbard, commander. Grand Army Cadet Corps, composed of sons of soldiers, also parade with them. The department parade about 800 men, and will be accompanied by two bands and three drum corps. Wil-

DUSHANE POST. Dushane Post, No. 3, G. A. R., Department of Maryland, was organized in Baltimore May 8, 1879. The officers are: Commander, Captain Frank M. Smith; senior vice-commander, C. A. Moore; junior vice-commander, tant, H. Clay Harris; quartermaster, John W. Worth; chaplain, John Weller; officer of the day, Thomas S. Norwood; officer of the guard, John C. Erman. They will bring about 165 men, with the Dushane post drum and fife corps. The post will leave Baltimore this morning at eight o'clock in a special train over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and arrive here about halfpast nine a, m. The uniform will be Grand Army suits, with dark overcoats, Grand Army fatigue caps, badges, and white gloves. This post is named after Colonel N. T. Dushane, First Maryland Infantry, killed while commanding the Maryland Second Division, Fifth Army son Post, No. 1, the largest Grand Army post in the country, bring their (post) band and drain and fife corps, the musicians being composed exclusively of veterans of the war and members of the

RENO POST. Reno Post, G. A. R., of Hagerstown, Md., was mustered in on Saturday, May 15, 1880, with twenty-three charter members, and at this date has over seventy-five comrades in good standing. Its officers are: W. W. Walker, commander; C. P. Little, senior vice-commander; C. M. Futterer, junior vice-commander: Levi Weest, quartermaster; Rev. Henry Edwards, chaptain; R. C. Banaford, officer of the day; C. R. Smith, officer of the guard; J. C. Lane, quartermaster-sergeant: J. M. Mentzer, sergeant-major; Ed. C. Mobley, adjutant, and John L. Cost, A. M. Roberts, and William H. Seidenstricker, council of administration. The post will arrive this morning and brings about CRESWELL POST, NO. 10, of Elkion, Md., was organized in 1871. The officers are John E. Wilson, colonel commanding; senior vice, L. M. Haines; junior vice, Henry Roberts, They, bring about forty men to Washington. The uniform is dark-blue fatigue caps, brass buttons. The undress uniform is the same as officers of the regular army. The organization is, of course, composed entirely of veterans of the late war, and numbers sixty members of whom over fifty were severely wounded. They will bring with them their life and drum and two sets of col-

HARRY HOWARD POST, NO. 11, of Baltimore, was formed on the 3d of February, [Continued on Eighth Page.]